Shark Island Swim Classic

368 swimmers faced the starting line in this year's Shark Island Swim Classic. Starter Bill Stafford sent the swimmers away in good weather and light sea conditions.

The winner for the third year in succession was champion swimmer Daniel McLellan. Daniel opened up a commanding lead over the last leg of the course and went on to win in 27 minutes and 18 seconds. In second place, 52 seconds behind, was Stacey Gartrell. Stacey, this year's Australian Women's Surf Champion and champion distance still water swimmer swam an outstanding race to stay so close to Daniel over the 2.3km course.

Other Club members to win there age group were: 13-18 Male — Leif Bergersen, 30-34 Female — Kate Ball, 40-44 Male — Kevin Neilson, 45-49 Female — Anne Telfer, Over 60 Male — Jim Silva

Once again the race was sponsored by Hot Wok Chinese Food Outlet at Westfield Shoppingtown, Hurstville and to Denis Wong our thanks for his continued support of this event. Over the past three years Denis has sponsored the swim to the amount of $12,000.00. Our thanks also to Lane 4 and Spank Sportswear. The Shark Island Swim Committee are thankful for the help and support this Committee received from a vast amount of Club members and their wives. Special thanks to a hard working committee who are hoping to once again increase the numbers in next years swim.

Committee members: Bruce Breadner, John Wilson, Greg Hewett, Kelly Hollingdale, Warren Buchan, Kevin Maughan, Allan Hanson and special thanks to Bill Stafford, Chris Stevenson and Ron Smith whose expertise in running this event is greatly appreciated.
